Schools

METRO Youth

Our National Youth Chances research found 52% of LGBTQ young people self-harming and 42% considering suicide.

Participating schools benefit from a free support package, funded by the Government Equalities Office in collaboration with the Department for Education, which can include student support, workshops, resources and staff training.

This package of support will ensure:

- More teachers and non-teaching staff feel confident, supported and capable preventing and tackling HBT bullying
- More pupils report that they feel confident in reporting HBT bullying, feel more resilient towards bullying, and feel their school is inclusive towards LGBT pupils and families
- Staff, pupils and parents/guardians are engaged, empowered and motivated to reduce HBT bullying
- More schools have policies and curricula targeted at preventing and tackling HBT bullying

Who are METRO?
